TOUR DETAIL

20/09/19 - Welcome to Japan!

Your Japan adventure begins with arrival into Tokyo, where you will clear customs and immigration before connecting to your flight to Sapporo, where KSG staff will greet you and escort you to your hotel by bus. Hokkaido, northernmost of Japan's main islands, is renowned for its natural beauty and gastronomic delights, and you will have plenty of opportunities to take in the sights and flavours. You are free until the evening, and you might try Hokkaido's famous 'Genghis Khan' for dinner, cooking lamb and veggies on a huge domed grill set into your table, eating it all straight from the grill! You can try this at the Kirin Beer Garden. In the evening, join the other tour participants for celebratory Welcome Drinks to officially kick-off your tour.

Meals included: Breakfast, Evening Drinks.

21/09/19 - Match Day: Australia v Fiji, Sapporo Dome, 13:45

Free morning for exploring! Ride the Sapporo Streetcar (shiden) for a leisurely glimpse of everyday life in Sapporo, stopping at the 'Tanuki-koji' covered-arcade shopping street, heart of the neighbourhood. A mid-day bus transfer takes you to ultra high-tech Sapporo Dome for the afternoon match. Explore the hovering soccer pitch, rooftop observatory, and indoor and outdoor artwork. Hungry? Try stadium food 'J-style' with takoyaki (balls of fried batter with octopus). We transfer you back to your hotel by bus following this and all matches. Meals Included: Breakfast.

22/09/19 - Match Day: England v Tonga, Sapporo Dome, 19:15

You're free all day for relaxed sightseeing until the evening match. Check out the Sapporo Autumn Fest, a sprawling food and beverage celebration at several hubs all along Odori Park. Just outside the hotel, take a walk through Nakajima Park, where you'll find a lake with rowboats for hire and a traditional Japanese garden complete with a vintage thatched-roof teahouse. Meals included: Breakfast.

23/09/19 - Transfer to Kyoto

Your Kansai adventure begins with a flight to Kyoto, Japan's Old Capital. After check-in you're free to explore on your own. A walk east down Shijo-dori (4th Street) takes you through Kyoto's main shopping area to the Kamo River, where you can truly feel the essence of timeless Kyoto. Just over the river is super-shrine Yasaka Jinja, home of the gods honoured in the Gion Festival. Continue through the Shrine and exit into Maruyama Park, or turn back and head north up the river.

Meals included: Breakfast.

24/09/19 - Western Kyoto Tour

Explore western Kyoto today as we stop in at Kinkakuji, the 'Golden Pavilion,' then get your Zen on as you gaze at Japan's most famous rock garden at Ryoan-ji. Head out of the city to Arashiyama and visit Tenryu-ji, a sprawling Zen temple compound dating to 1339, with gorgeous gardens and teahouses. End your day in awe as you traverse paths cutting through towering bamboo in the dark and mysterious Arashiyama Bamboo Forest.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch.

25/09/19 - Nara Tour

Today we visit nearby Nara, Japan's first permanent capital and cultural treasure chest. Meet the Great Buddha at Tōdai-ji temple, see hundreds of deer in Nara Park, and experience Kasuga Grand Shrine, protectorate of the Fujiwara Clan. More than 3,000 lanterns line the walk approaching the shrine, one for each of the 3,000 Kasuga shrines throughout the country. Like many Shintō shrines, Kasuga Grand Shrine is nestled in a sacred grove, and countless small wooden shrines and mossy, ancient stone lanterns dot the maze of paths through the forest.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch

26/09/19 - Match Day: England v USA, Kobe Misaki Stadium, 19:45

Enjoy a free day and nibble your way through historic Nishiki Market, an open-air food extravaganza under an arcade of stained glass. Go early; it gets crowded by mid-day. See the Museum of Kyoto, housed in an old bank building, and catch up on the history of the city and the July Gion Festival. Peek in on the excellent, elegant coffee shop in what used to be the vault. Don't miss the International Manga Museum, and browse four floors of illustrated comics, definitely not just for kids! In between are teahouses, coffee shops and small cafes galore to keep you going before the evening match. Round trip to the picturesque harbour town of Kobe by chartered bus. Prepare your large luggage tonight for sending in advance, so you can travel tomorrow with your KSG provided carry-on case.

27/09/19 - Transfer to Tokyo

In the morning we depart the hotel by bus to the world famous Shinkansen (Bullet Train), for our journey to Tokyo. 'Eki-ben' (nickname for obento from different stations) are different all over the country, and eating a bento box lunch on the Bullet Train is a favourite activity in Japan. Relax like a native and take in the changing scenery as we zip along at speeds of nearly 300 km/hour! Your luggage will be waiting for you on arrival at your hotel. Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch pack.

28/09/19 - Mt. Fuji Tour

Fuji-san, as it is commonly known, is the highlight of the day. Japan's tallest peak and an active volcano, it is the beloved symbol of the nation and a sacred mountain. Travel by bus to Lake Kawaguchi, serene reflecting pool for Fuji-san, then meander around the Oshino Eight Ponds for views of Fuji-san as a backdrop for traditional, rural scenery. Meet up with ninjas at the Oshino Ninja Village then enjoy lunch prepared with local ingredients before heading up to Fuji-san's 5th station (out of 10). Return to Tokyo by bus in time for dinner on your own.

Meals included: Breakfast, Lunch.

29/09/19 - Match Day: Australia v. Wales, Tokyo Stadium 16:45

You're free until the afternoon match, and this is a good time to visit the area surrounding historic Tokyo station if you haven't already. Or maybe take a boat tour along the Sumida River, or stroll through the upscale Ginza neighbourhood for shopping and traditional green tea in a modern setting. After the match we'll transfer by bus back to the hotel. Get your packing done early and head out to karaoke on your last night in Tokyo!

Meals included: Breakfast.

30/09/19 - Today we say Sayonara as your tour comes to a close. Our team will arrange your transfer to either Narita or Haneda airports.

Meals included: Breakfast.
